|Mike Monson started at the top of noir and just keeps getting better. His latest, A Killer's Love, is everything you would expect and quite a bit more. Lancaster Messier is in fact a killer--a killer who may well have met his match. He can assume an identity in an instant. You don't quite know when he is himself or some persona he

Lancaster Messier makes good money murdering rich women and converting all of their earthly possessions into cash. But when he meets the sexy and alluring Carla, he makes a fundamental occupational mistake--he falls in love.

A Killer's Love is an intense novella about the slippery nature of identity, and includes all the extreme sex, violence, and sick humor you've come to expect from Mike Monson.

Mike Monson is the author of the novel Tussinland, a
